The assembly may be seated.

FIRST READING

Acts 16:16-34

Those who had enslaved a girl and used her powers to tell fortunes threw Paul and Silas into jail for ordering the spirit to come out of her and consequently ruining their business. In prison, Paul and Silas bring the good news of the gospel to the jailer and his family.

The reading is announced: A reading from Acts.

<sup>16</sup>One day, as we were going to the place of prayer, we met a slave-girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling. <sup>17</sup>While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, "These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to you a way of salvation." <sup>18</sup>She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour.

<sup>19</sup>But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities. <sup>20</sup>When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, "These men are disturbing our city; they are Jews <sup>21</sup>and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to adopt or observe." <sup>22</sup>The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods. <sup>23</sup>After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. <sup>24</sup>Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

<sup>25</sup>About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup>Suddenly there was an earthquake, so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were unfastened. <sup>27</sup>When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped. <sup>28</sup>But Paul shouted in a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here." <sup>29</sup>The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. <sup>30</sup>Then he brought them outside and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" <sup>31</sup>They answered, "Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." <sup>32</sup>They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. <sup>33</sup>At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay. <sup>34</sup>He brought them up into the house and set food before them; and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.

The reading is concluded: Word of God, word of life.

The assembly responds: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 97

The psalm is sung responsively by whole verse. The assembly sings the bold print.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD reigns; let the | earth rejoice;
let the multitude of the | isles be glad.

<sup>2</sup>Clouds and darkness sur- | round the LORD,
righteousness and justice are the foundations | of God's throne.

<sup>3</sup>Fire goes be- | fore the LORD,
burning up enemies on | every side.

<sup>4</sup>Lightnings light | up the world;
the earth | sees and trembles.

<sup>5</sup>The mountains | melt like wax
before the Lord of | all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>The heavens declare your righteous- | ness, O LORD,
and all the peoples | see your glory.

<sup>7</sup>Confounded be all who worship carved images and delight | in false gods!

Bow down before the LORD, | all you gods.

<sup>8</sup>Zion hears and is glad, and the cities of Ju- | dah rejoice,
because of your judg- | ments, O LORD.

<sup>9</sup>For you are the LORD, most high over | all the earth;
you are exalted far a- | bove all gods.

<sup>10</sup>You who love the | LORD, hate evil!

God guards the lives of the saints and rescues them
from the hand | of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup>Light dawns | for the righteous,
and joy for the hon- | est of heart.

<sup>12</sup>Rejoice in the | LORD, you righteous,
and give thanks to God's | holy name.

SECOND READING            Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20-21

The ascended Christ, now hidden from our sight, promises to come again. We eagerly pray, "Come, Lord Jesus," with all who respond to this invitation.

The reading is announced: A reading from Revelation.

<sup>12</sup>"See, I am coming soon; my reward is with me, to repay according to everyone's work. <sup>13</sup>I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

<sup>14</sup>Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates.

<sup>16</sup>"It is I, Jesus, who sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star."

<sup>17</sup>The Spirit and the bride say, "Come."

And let everyone who hears say, "Come."

And let everyone who is thirsty come.

Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift.

<sup>20</sup>The one who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

The reading is concluded: Word of God, word of life.

The assembly responds: Thanks be to God.

The assembly stands as able to welcome the gospel.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Repeat alleluia

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 17:20-26

Jesus prays that the life of his followers will be characterized by an intimate unity of identity with God. To be so identified with God means also to share in God's mission: to proclaim the word that will bring others into this same unity.

The gospel is announced.

The Holy Gospel according to St. John.

The assembly responds:

Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus prayed:] <sup>20</sup>“I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, <sup>21</sup>that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. <sup>22</sup>The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, <sup>23</sup>I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. <sup>24</sup>Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

<sup>25</sup>“Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me. <sup>26</sup>I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.”

The gospel is concluded: The gospel of the Lord.

The assembly responds: Praise to you, O Christ.

The assembly may be seated.

SERMON

The following is a reflection on the readings for those unable to be physically present at our service today or those without internet access to Facebook to view our worship service.

It is possible to hear in Jesus’ high priestly prayer, a prayer he offered shortly before his death, the petitions of the ascended Christ for his own throughout history—to our day—and beyond. Jesus prays for us. In holy baptism we become believers in God, have our robes washed in Christ’s forgiveness, and receive the gift of life forever with all the saints.

At the conclusion of the sermon, the assembly stands to proclaim the word of God in song.

HYMN OF THE DAY

ELW#617

“We Come to You for Healing, Lord”

NICENE CREED

Down through the ages, the Nicene Creed has been spoken on Easter Sunday and throughout the Easter season. The presiding minister announces the creed. The assembly reads the bold print.

As the Easter season come to end, let us join together in the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius
Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;

he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,*
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

*The assembly may be seated.
The service continues with our tithes and offerings.*
