PROCESSIONAL HYMN:

ELW#834

"Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise"

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Please remain standing as you are able. All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the minister continues.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✚ one God,
who forgives all our sin,
whose mercy endures forever.

Amen.

Let us return to God, confessing our sin in the assurance of God's abiding love.

*Please kneel or sit as you are able.
Silence for reflection and self-examination.*

The minister continues:

Compassionate One,
you are slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, but our lives do not always reflect you and your love for the world.
We do not show others the tender compassion
you have shown to us.
We do not welcome others with the radical hospitality
you grant to all people.
We oppress others,
even though you have set us free again and again.
We squander the abundant gifts of the earth.
Transform our lives and guide us again in the way of the cross. Amen.

The minister proclaims God's forgiveness.

Beloved in Christ,
God's arms are always stretched open wide to welcome the wandering ones home.
In † Christ your sins are forgiven.
You have a place in God's house forever.
Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

APOSTOLIC GREETING

The minister greets the assembly; The assembly responds in the bold print.

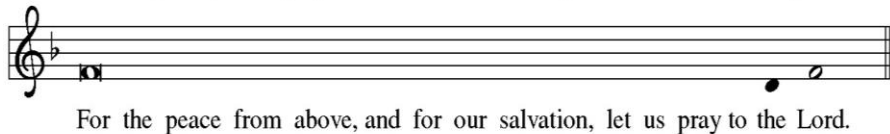

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

KYRIE

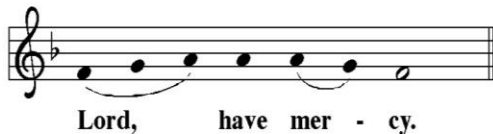

The cantor begins; the assembly sings the bold print.

In peace, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mer - cy.

For the peace from above, and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

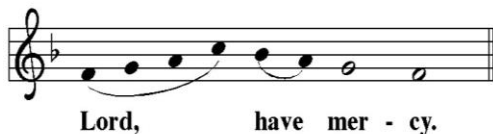

Lord, have mer - cy.

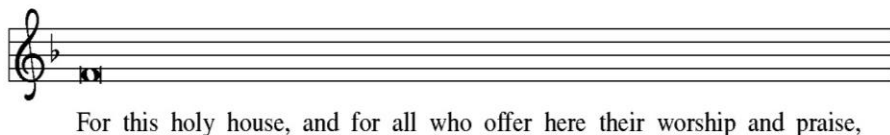

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mer - cy.

For this holy house, and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mer - cy.

Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gra - cious Lord. A - men.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

The minister continues with the Prayer of the Day.

God of the covenant, in the mystery of the cross you promise everlasting life to the world. Gather all peoples into your arms, and shelter us with your mercy, that we may rejoice in the life we share in your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

The assembly may be seated.

FIRST READING: Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18

God promises a childless and doubting Abram that he will have a child, that his descendants will be as numerous as the stars, and that the land of Canaan will be their inheritance. Abram's trust in God is sealed with a covenant-making ceremony, a sign of God's promise.

The reading is announced: A reading from Genesis.

¹ After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." ² But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" ³ And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." ⁴ But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." ⁵ He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." ⁶ And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.

⁷ Then he said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess." ⁸ But he said, "O Lord GOD, how am I to know that I shall possess it?" ⁹ He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." ¹⁰ He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. ¹¹ And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

¹² As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him.

¹⁷ When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. ¹⁸ On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates."

The reading is concluded: The word of the Lord.

The assembly responds: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 27

The psalm will be sung responsively. The assembly sings the bold print.

- ¹ The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom then I shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I I be afraid?
- ² When evildoers close in against me to de- I your my flesh, they my foes and my enemies will stum- I ble and fall.
- ³ Though an army encamp against me my heart I will not fear. Though war rise up against me my trust will I not be shaken.
- ⁴ One thing I ask of the LORD one I thing I seek; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life; to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek God I in the temple.
- ⁵ For in the day of trouble God will I give me shelter, hide me in the hidden places of the sanctuary, and raise me high up- I on a rock.

6 Even now my head is lifted up above my enemies | who surround me. Therefore I will offer sacrifice in the sanctuary, sacrifices of rejoicing; I will sing and make music | to the LORD.

7 Hear my voice O LORD, | when I call; have mercy on me and | answer me.

8 My heart speaks your message— | “Seek my face.” Your face O LORD | I will seek. R

9 Hide not your face from me, turn not away from your ser- | vant in anger. Cast me not away you have been my helper; forsake me not O God of | my salvation.

10 Though my father and my moth- | er forsake me, the LORD will | take me in.

11 Teach me your | way, O LORD; lead me on a level path because of | my oppressors.

12 Subject me not to the will | of my foes, for they rise up against me false witnesses | breathing violence.

13 This I believe that I will see the goodness | of the LORD in the land | of the living!

14 Wait for the LORD | and be strong. Take heart and wait | for the LORD!

SECOND READING: Philippians 3:17—4:1

Although Paul’s devotion to Christ has caused him to be persecuted, he does not regret the course he has taken. Writing from prison, he expresses confidence in a glorious future and encourages other Christians to follow in his footsteps.

The reading is announced: A reading from Philippians.

17 Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. 18 For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. 19 Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things. ²⁰ But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. ²¹ He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. ^{4:1} Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

The reading is concluded: The word of the Lord.

The assembly responds: Thanks be to God

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION FOR LENT

Please stand as you are able. The assembly welcomes the gospel singing the Lenten acclamation.

Re - turn to the Lord, your God, for he is gra - cious and mer - ci - ful, slow to an - ger, and a - bound - ing in stead - fast love, and a - bound - ing in stead - fast love.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 13:31-35

Neither Herod's plotting nor Jerusalem's resistance to maternal love will deter Jesus from his sacrificial mission.

The gospel is announced.

The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke.

The assembly responds:

Glory to you, O Lord.

³¹ At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to [Jesus,] “Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.” ³² He said to them, “Go and tell that fox for me, ‘Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. ³³ Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.’ ³⁴ Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! ³⁵ See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’”

The gospel concludes: The gospel of the Lord.
The assembly responds: Praise to you, O Christ.
The assembly may be seated.

SERMON

Kathy Long, LLM

Following the sermon, the assembly stands as able to proclaim the word of God in song.

HYMN OF THE DAY

ELW#597

“My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less”

THE APOSTLES’ CREED

The minister announces the Creed. The assembly reads the bold print.

Let us proclaim our faith in the words of the Apostles’ Creed.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

The minister calls the assembly to prayer. Please remain standing as you are able.

Led by the Spirit, let us turn to God in prayer for the church, the world, and all those in need.

A brief silence.

Holy God, you long to gather your church under your wings. Bless the churches of Jerusalem, and all persecuted churches, that your people may take heart and stand firm as they witness and minister in your name. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Holy God, you give shelter to living things as numerous as the stars. Strengthen the voice of prophets who call humanity to faithful care for the planet, that they would not be silenced but heeded as your messengers. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Holy God, you raised up leaders like Abram, Sarai, and Paul to show your people what it means to rely on your promises. Guide today's leaders to work for justice and safeguard the world for future generations. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Holy God, you are the stronghold of our life. Care tenderly for those who are ill in body or mind, and for people living in fear or need. We lift up to you the following members facing personal obstacles in their own lives:

Vicky Ahner, Virginia Crowther, Sandy Edwish, Krys Haupt, Jane Hydro, Heather Kincaid, Larry E. Markley, Lester Miller, Earl Schneider, Pauline Snyder, Herbert Werner and all we name silently in our hearts before you now...

(We pause in silence.)

God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Holy God, you offer us citizenship in heaven. Unite communities of faith who are divided over earthly things, that following the way of your Son, they may set aside grudges and serve their neighbors with generosity and love. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

We pray for all veterans, that they may receive the gratitude, the care and the support they so need and deserve, and for those separated from family and friends as they serve in the Armed Forces around the world, so we may continue living daily in peace. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Holy God, you are our light and our salvation. We give thanks for the saints who have gone before us, especially those we dearly miss and remember in humble gratitude silently before you now... (We pause in silence)

Help us to trust in you as they did and to live according to their example. God, in your mercy,
receive our prayer.

Receive the prayers of your people and draw all things together in your love, in the name of Jesus, who leads us from death to life.

Amen.

*The assembly may be seated.
Our service continues with our tithes and offerings.*

Gracious Provider, you set your immense treasures among us, opening your heart to the world.

As we prepare to feast on your bountiful love, deepen our commitment to sharing those treasures with others, through our Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The minister begins; the assembly responds in the bold print.

PROPER PREFACE FOR LENT

The minister continues.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy,
that we should at all times and in all places
give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ.

You call your people to cleanse their hearts and prepare with joy for the paschal feast, that, renewed in the gift of baptism,
we may come to the fullness of your grace.

And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

THE SANCTUS (Sung in unison)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

The minister declares the command of our Lord as spoken at the Last Supper.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

The minister introduces the Lord's Prayer. A bell is rung for each of the seven petitions.

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The minister addresses the assembly as the bread is broken for the Eucharist meal.

All who are hungry, come!
